GERMANY LIABLE TO MEET TERMS

Belief Growing Submarine Issue Will Be Adjusted.

CHANCELLOR BACK IN BERLIN

Indications Are That High Officials Have Decided Upon Their Policy and That a Reply to the American Note Will Soon Be Forthcoming.

Berlin, April 24.—The imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, has returned to Berlin, which would seem to justify the assumption that the empire's responsible leaders at general headquarters have finished consideration of the American note and reached a decision concerning Germany's reply.

What this reply will be naturally is unknown to any but the highest officials.

The chancellor's return, it is understood, was not expected until Tuesday; hence, a general decision appears to have been reached earlier than looked for.

There is no intimation of when the reply will be formulated, but there seems to be much significance in the fact that the Lokal Anzeiger, which is consistently well informed, say that "Germany's strength and prestige have so increased in the last twenty months in the eyes of the whole world that the German government has, indeed, only to follow the commandments of wisdom."

The obvious deduction, according to the view here, is that there is nothing to prevent Germany from making certain concessions if the leaders feel they can properly do so. Whether they do feel that they can go this far is, of course, another question.

Peace Party Is Powerful.

There unquestionably is a considerable peace party in Germany, which includes powerful financial interests represented by the house organs and the Frankfurter Zeitung, and including also the Berlin Tageblatt and Socialist organs.

Certain high officials, also, would consent to a breach of war with the United States only most reluctantly and under pressure of what seemed to them an unavoidable necessity.

It may be not without significance that Maximilian Harden was permitted to print a remarkable article in his paper Zukunft, defending President Wilson's standpoint in plain words.

With the possible exception of a handful of extremists there appears to be nobody in Germany desirous of a breach of war with the United States. It is evident beyond doubt, however, that if the government should reject the demands of the American note respecting submarine warfare it would find the united support of Germans of all parties.

Even those to whom the idea of a rupture between Germany and the United States is most distasteful agree in feeling that the government must refuse to weaken its means of warring against Great Britain, though this should mean a breach with the United States.

A faint note of optimism is sounded by the Vorwarts, the organ of the Social Democratic party, but other papers speak openly of "an unavoidable breach."

MANY GRAVE FACES SEEN

Wild Rush at Berlin to Read American Note.

Berlin, April 24.—The American note occupies the first pages of all the newspapers and forced even the daily war report to the inside columns. The impatience with which the public awaited the publication of the note was illustrated by the street scenes when the editions appeared.

The people had been apprised of the impending publication. Crowds surrounded the first newsboys on the Unter den Linden, Leipzig, Friedrich and other principal streets of the business quarter, fairly snatching the newspapers from them.

The impression of the note upon the readers was a mixed one. Many faces were grave as the readers perused the long columns of the note. The comment also was grave.

UNION MEN WOULD PREPARE

Issue Is Endorsed at Monster Mass Meeting in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, April 24.—"Preparedness" was endorsed at a monster mass meeting of union men in the Auditorium when it was shown as the sense of the meeting that the Trades and Labor association, which had called it, should form a military organization as previously suggested by the Machinists' union.

It was estimated that about 1,800 persons attended the mass meeting.

RUSSIAN EMPEROR REPORTED INJURED

Berlin, April 24.—A narrow escape for Emperor Nicholas of Russia from death or serious injury by bombs dropped by an Austrian aviator during a recent visit of the emperor to a southern sector of the Russian line is reported in Stockholm advices received by the Overseas News agency.

"The emperor was reviewing the troops in company with General Brusiloff, commander of the Russian forces on the southwestern front, when suddenly an Austro-Hungarian aviator appeared and dropped numerous bombs which landed among the troops, who fled in wild disorder," says the news agency statement.

"The emperor, according to the reports, was hurt and had a narrow escape, the incident causing him to lose his self-possession. In consequence, the report added, General Brusiloff was bitterly reproached and General Ivanoff was recalled to the southwestern front headquarters."

ASKS IMPEACHMENT OF PRESIDENT WILSON.

Milwaukee, April 24.—The Excelsior, a German weekly paper devoted chiefly to the German Catholics of Wisconsin, published an extensive editorial attacking the administration for its course in the German submarine criticism and demanding the immediate impeachment of the president.

"Johnson was impeached for lesser offenses against the nation than this president, who is trying at the behest of England to throw this country into war," the paper declared.

ROOSEVELT FAMILY WARLIKE

Colonel and His Four Sons Are Ready To Enlist.
Oyster Bay, N. Y., April 24.—Theodore Roosevelt and his four sons will fight against Germany if war breaks out. The colonel, in a long statement, promised that they would take up arms. He attacked the "supine" policy of the Wilson administration, asserting that "the peace of unpreparedness is the peace of cowardice and folly."

"Men are saying," said Colonel Roosevelt, "that they stand behind the president or by the president. I wish to speak for the men who, in the event of war, will stand in front of the president, and between him and the foreign enemy, and who, therefore, will stand between danger and the men who are behind or beside the president."

"In the event of such a war my four sons will go, and one, and perhaps both of my sons-in-law; I will go myself; the young kinkofs and friends of my sons will go; so my words are spoken with my eyes open."

RAIDERS SHOOT 300 SHEEP

Animals Shot Following Frequent Quarrels With Cattlemen.

Grand Junction, Colo., April 24.—Three hundred thoroughbred sheep were shot by raiders near the Mesa Delta county line, according to reports reaching here. The sheep belonged to R. E. Baker, who is said to have had frequent clashes with cattlemen over the use of the range. Information received here state that Baker threatened to arm herders to repel future attacks.

Germany Doesn't want to Break with America

(By United Press)
Washington, April 24.—Official information reaching the United States indicates that Germany does not want to break with America, but it also reveals the quandary they are in as to how to meet the demands expressed in the note and the popular desire of Germany for a continuance of submarine warfare. Authorities here think German officialdom will find a way.

Early Reply Expected To the German Note

(By United Press)
Berlin, April 24.—President Wilson may know within 24 hours what Germany's reply to his note will be. Ambassador Gerard dispatched a long message to Washington last night following a conference with the foreign office. Ambassador Gerard and Hollweg conferred this morning.

Washington, April 24.—The British ambassador has delivered the British reply to the United States protest regarding the blockade, the French minister concurring. (By United Press)
Gen. Pershing's Headquarters, American Army, April 24.—Major Howze with his detachment returning this afternoon from their campaign, reported that they narrowly averted clashing with Carranzaistas under Gen. The Carranzaistas were lined up ready to rush the attack, the Americans drew up to repel the attack when Major Howze rode between the forces and explained the mission, and they withdrew.

(By United Press)
Columbus, N. M., April 24.—It is reported that Mexican officials are being held as hostages at the American camps to insure safety of Americans owing to the extreme hostility of the inhabitants. STILL FIGHTING AROUND VERDUN

Encounters Also Take Place on Other Fronts.

EMPLOY THIRTY DIVISIONS

French War Office Estimates Teutons Have Been Using About Six Hundred Thousand Men in an Effort to Reduce the Verdun Fortress.

London, April 24.—Battles of heavy proportions have been in progress in all the war theaters except the Balkans. Successes for the entente allies and the Teutonic allies have varied.

On the Verdun front, where for two months the Germans and French have been almost continuously in battle, the Germans, according to an estimate of the French war office, up to April 22 had used thirty divisions, or about 600,000 men, in the fighting or in reinforcing units, which suffered heavy losses.

The Germans claim the capture of French trenches in the Verdun region southeast of Moncourt and west of Dead Man's hill, while Paris records the taking of several German posts in the Avocourt wood. Hill No. 304 is again under heavy bombardment of the Germans.

Trenches taken by the Germans from the British on the Langemarck-Ypres road have been evacuated owing to floods, which made their consolidation impossible.

The Germans are still using their big guns against the Ikskul bridge-head on the Russian front and farther south have repulsed a Russian attack in the Lake Narocz region.

Ten German aeroplanes have bombarded the Russian aviation station on Osel island, in the Gulf of Riga, at the entrance to the Baltic sea.

The Italians and Austrians have fought a sanguinary engagement on the Carso front, near Sels, in which the Italians captured 360 meters of Austrian trenches and took a number of prisoners and a quantity of rifles and other war stores.

While the Russians report that in the Caucasus region near Aschikala, fifty miles west of Erzerum, they have captured an important sector of the Turkish positions, Constantinople says that south of Bitlis the Turks have defeated the Russians and sent them in retreat toward Bitlis.

TRUCE MAY BE VERY BRIEF

Crisis in British Cabinet Is By No Means Passed.

London, April 24.—The political truce arising out of the recent cabinet compromise is likely to be of brief duration. David Lloyd-George, minister of munitions, still remains the storm center; while another point of difficulty appears to be the attitude of the Labor party toward the government.

The acceptance by Arthur Henderson, president of the board of education, and his supporters in the Labor party of a compromise conditional on holding a secret session of parliament, which apparently involves the conversion of the parliamentary Laborites to compulsory service should the information the government is able to give in the secret session satisfy them that the necessary men cannot be obtained by any other means, is creating a considerable amount of suspicion among labor men outside of parliament and trade unionists generally, who are beginning to doubt the wisdom of holding a secret session. They fear that something will be done behind their backs and that they will be committed to compulsory military service against their will.

GIVES GREECE $1,000,000

Premier Skouloudis Pays Troops' Families From Own Pockets.

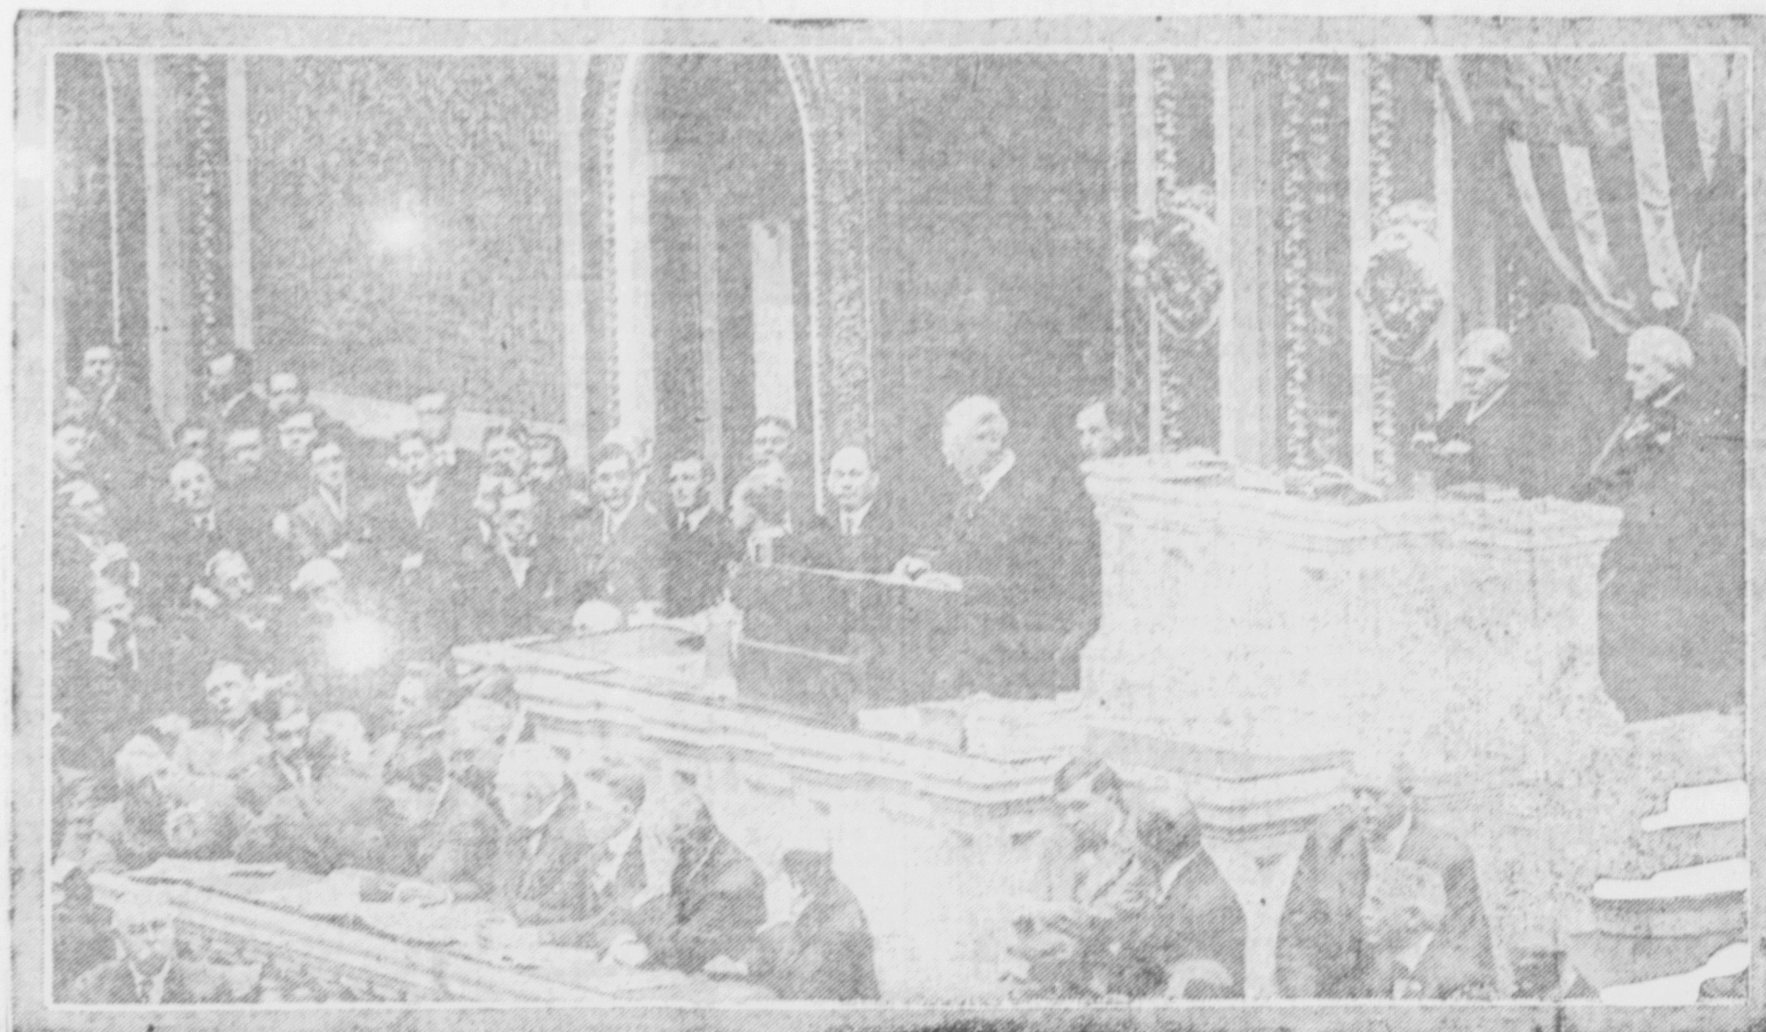

Athens, April 24.—Premier Skouloudis, who is wealthy, has given $1,000,000 to the state, this being approximately the sum due the families of the mobilized troops and unpaid on account of an empty treasury.

REWARD FOR SAVING LIFE

Omaha Man Is Left an Estate Valued at $500,000.

Omaha, April 24.—Eber Smith, traveling salesman of this city, has received notification from San Bernardino, Cal., that he was named sole heir to the estate of Thomas Simpson, a California rancher, who died a short time ago. The estate is valued at $500,000.

Two years ago, it is said, Smith saved Simpson's life when a forest fire was sweeping on Simpson's California ranch house, where he lay, alone, suffering from a broken leg.

This Photograph was taken at the beginning of the address of President Wilson to the joint session of House of Representatives and the Senate Wednesday. Vice-President Marshall is in the chair with Speaker Clark at his left. The President is at the reading desk in front of them.

DOES NOT INVOLVE GRUNOW

Confession Fails to Implicate Consul at St. Paul.

Washington, April 22.—Department of justice officials announced that, while the name of Hans Grunow, German consul at St. Paul, is mentioned in the confession of Horst von der Goltz, the alleged German spy, there is nothing to show that the St. Paul consul was guilty of any improper acts.

"It has been shown," said Bruce Hietaski, who has charge of the department's investigation work, "that Von der Goltz presented a letter of introduction to Grunow written by Captain von Papen, recalled German attache."

Clean Up and Prevent Criticism

A TRAIN on which a well dressed St. Paul citizen was recently traveling stopped at a small town. From the car window could be seen a dozen or more back yards. Heaps of refuse were scattered over the weedy ground. Here and there a tin can glistened in the sun.

The houses were dull, uninteresting and in bad repair. A couple of listless men boarded the train and sank into their seats, apparently thankful to be leaving the place.

An hour later they approached another town. There was no dismal outlook there. The back yards were carpeted with close cropped grass and patterned with flower beds. Fresh painted white fences separated the lawns. Most of the houses had been recently painted.

"Is this the county seat?" the citizen asked the conductor.

"No; that last town is the county seat," was his answer, "but this place is going to be. That other town hasn't got enough self respect to fight the bill that will make the change. This town is a hummer. It deserves to win."

It's Possible.

Our Detroit plants are running about 150 cars a day BEHIND ORDERS!

Of course, what's going on in our Detroit plants—our difficulties in keeping up with orders—our being 150 or so cars a day BEHIND orders even with one of the largest factories in the whole industry—all that makes little difference to you, as we know. But we do know that the REASON we can't keep up with orders DOES make lots of difference to YOU. For that reason is simply this:

The SERIES 17 Studebakers cost from $250 to $400 LESS than any other cars that give as much. Said in another way, YOU SAVE FROM $250 to $400 by buying a Studebaker.

Now, we don't expect you to say: "That's so" and rush down to buy a car. We only want you to turn that thought over in your mind a couple of times: "$250 to $400 saved by buying a Studebaker"—and then come down and make us PROVE it.

We CAN prove it—either here in our Showrooms or off on the road. We can prove it side by side with any other car you can name—or on the toughest hill in the neighborhood—anywhere and any time you say.

And when you've seen these SERIES 17 Studebakers and know what they offer, THEN go see those other cars and make the salesman tell you WHY they want $250 to $400 more? and WHAT you get for the extra price? and whether it's worth paying that much higher price for nothing more.

See a Studebaker—and save yourself $250 or more.

At St. Louis the millionaire stenographers are with the business college, for heiresses are about to take a business course. Four of St. Louis' richest heiresses will take courses in stenography and bookkeeping.

Imagine, if you can, Misses Ruth and Vesta Brown, daughters of the late Alanson D. Brown, millionaire shoe manufacturer, as stenographers. Imagine, too, Miss Berkley Sloan, daughter of another millionaire shoe manufacturer, as stenographer. Or, imagine Miss Mildred McCluny, daughter of a millionaire broker, in a similar position.

Maybe you can do it, St. Louis can't.

"What," said Lindell boulevard and Washington terrace and Westminster place society on hearing the news, "What! Oh, it can't be."

What should four beautiful girls, heiresses to millions, take up the lives of working girls? Why should these young women, familiar figures at country clubs, on the golf links and tennis courts, at the wheel on the fashionable drives, at social functions of all sorts, put that life aside? And for one of grind and worry and meager pay?

Fashionable society could not answer. It put up its hands and shrugged its shoulders and shook its head dolefully. What was the world coming to anyway?

But out on Lindell boulevard and Washington terrace and Westminster place, at three pretentious homes, the answer was easy.

"They have all decided to learn business ways and methods so they can care for their own estates," said Mrs. Brown. And the parents of Miss Sloan and Miss McCluny confirmed the reason.

The flutter caused by the news of the heiresses' course was more pronounced than anywhere in the business college.

"Riches untold is theirs," said sentimental Miss Lella McFadden. "And yet they come here to work. Ah, their hearts must have been broken in some sad love affair. I just know it." Miss McFadden absolutely refused to believe the reason given for the advent of the heiresses in the school. Their hearts have been broken and they are trying to bury their grief in work," she repeated with conviction.

Madge, Mabel and Maud, residents in the river wards, sat nearest the four from fashion's world. Madge, Mabel and Maud gave the four the "once over", then thawed. They saw right away that there were four girls who could be admitted to their exclusive circle.

"Cripes," said Madge, the spokeswoman, "they're just human after all. Maybe they got money comin' and maybe they is in bang tong society, I dunno. But take it from me, they are just like other girls and don't stick their noses up a t'all, and I, for one, ain't gonna snub 'em."

"Go 'way, please, and don't bother us," said the four heiresses to newspaper men. "We've got lots to learn and can't waste any time talking to reporters."

The Brainerd Practical Business College will open as soon as thirty students enroll. S. P. Randall is the field secretary and his address is care of the Windsor hotel.

EASTER PROGRAM

Pleasing Cantata "The Birthday of Hope," Draws Many to First Methodist Church

Sunday night the crowd that gathered to hear the Easter cantata, "The Birthday of Hope," completely filled the auditorium, and a number were turned away. The different selections were greatly enjoyed by an attentive audience.

Every number appropriately added some phase of the wonderful story of Christ's resurrection. Much praise is due the committee who had this matter in hand, and those who took part for the efficient way they rendered the program.

EASTER CANTATA

One of the Best in History of Church Given at First Presbyterian Church

The Easter cantata given at the Presbyterian church last night, was one of the best ever delivered at this church. It was under the efficient direction of Professor J. Carl Swanson and stands as a special testimony to his ability. The whole choir responded finely to his leadership.

There were thirty voices in the chorus and each member had his part in the work thoroughly mastered. The solo work was most excellent and the mixed quartet and ladies' quartet was listened to with the most earnest attention. The rendition required about thirty minutes and the large audience was in perfect sympathy throughout.

The cantata is worshipful in its character and is recitative of the gospel account of the resurrection of Christ. Before the service the chorus assembled in the manse of the church and was reminded by the pastor of the very sacredness of the occasion and the religious part to be taken by each individual member.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

Seven Children Confirmed at German Evangelical Church on Easter Sunday

In an impressive service on Easter Sunday seven children were confirmed in the German Evangelical church. The children gave an open and cheerful declaration of their Christian faith. The pastor appealed to them with the message, "Fear Not! Fear Not the Risen Lord, Fear Not Your Own Grave and Fear Not the World."

Those confirmed are: Mildred Boppel, Olga Krueger, Sophie Kreuger, Elsie Schwartzkopf, Frieda er, Rose English and Edmund Ohms.

WOMEN ARE LEADERS

In the Movement for Homes and Towns Beautiful, Says Writer

The "parlor" variety of civic worker has become obsolete in the ranks of American women's clubs. There is so much to do in practical community-betterment work which women are proving that they can do better than men, that the time has passed when the reading of Browning and the serving of tea and conversation was in vogue.

The club meetings have become virile centers from which flows new blood into the very life arteries of city, town and state. And it has been declared by state and national leaders in women's club progress that the local "Clean Up and Paint Up" campaign offers the most direct and practical and permanent avenue through which women, organized or individual, can work for homes and hometowns beautiful and sanitary.

Let us show our city fathers that Brainerd women are at the helm and will do their part.

"A few nights ago one of my patrons had a child taken with croup," writes M. T. Davis, merchant, Bearsville, W. Va. A Strange Tradition.

When you put your chicken on to cook, if you are uncertain about its age, place in the utensil in which you are cooking it one or two clean rusty nails and you will find, no matter how old it may be, it will cook in the same time and be just as tender as the ordinary stewing chicken.

This is a family tradition handed down from my grandmother, who was a famous cook in her day. Just how the nails act on the meat to produce the effect I will want to leave to some scientist to discover. — Philadelphia Record.

ARMY HAS RIVAL IN THE MILITIA

Politicians Usually Show Preference For Citizen Soldiery.

PROBLEM A VERY OLD ONE.

Claimed That Men Are More Interested In Local Military Companies, Which, In a Measure, Are Social Organizations—Never a Possibility of Service Unless There Is Danger.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 24.—[Special.]—Discussion of military legislation has developed a rivalry that goes back to the time of the Stuarts in England, the rivalry between a standing army and the militia. And what is more, it is found that for the most part the politicians are with the militia and against the army.

Of course the same argument that was made two or three hundred years ago was made in the debates—that a large standing army was a menace to the nation and that the safety of the country was in its citizen soldiers. Whether that is true or not, it is a fact that reliance will be upon the citizen soldiery, for there will not be a large regular army, and there will always be great care given to the militia.

Why Men Prefer the Militia.

If men are going to train as soldiers they prefer the militia, because they can be at home while serving. More than that, the militia organizations are social in character. There is no great gulf between the private and the captain, and the private can dance at the armory with the captain's daughter and not be reproved. Then the possibility of service is only when there is danger, with actual fighting or at least a great deal of excitement.

Service in the regular army for the enlisted men is not so entertaining. Another fact is that there is a possibility for the promotion of militiamen. The privates may become officers. Thousands of them did in the civil war. There is little opportunity for such promotion in the regular service.

Persistent Moore.

If pertinacity is to be rewarded then J. Hampton Moore should secure the Intercoastal waterway that he has been fighting for ever since he has been in congress. So far congress does not seem disposed to run a canal parallel with the Atlantic ocean, believing that the ocean is a pretty fair waterway itself. Moore has reached a state of frenzied determination in the matter. Because Martin Madden of Chicago opposed the waterway Moore charged him with being in favor of drowning people who were compelled to go up and down the coast in ships.

"Whiskered Wilson."

"Oh, you fellows can go ahead and nominate Hughes if you want to," said one of the New York Republicans to a friend in the cloakroom. "But you will get a whiskered Wilson in the White House."

There are quite a number of New York Republicans who would just as soon have Roosevelt as Hughes, and there are a lot of New York Republicans who do not want either.

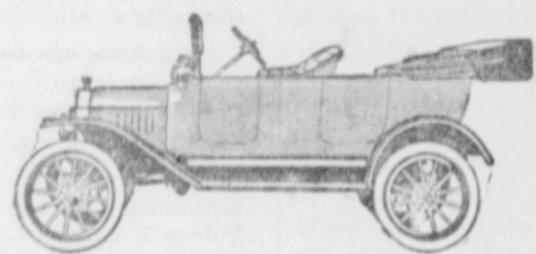

Running the Government.

"You never allowed us to dictate to you about your tariff legislation," declared Senator Williams of Mississippi one day when the Republicans complained that the Democrats did not consult them in regard to tariff matters. "I used to hear, day after day," he continued, "from Thomas B. Reed, from David B. Henderson and from Joseph G. Cannon, in tones that were dictatorial, the expression, 'We are running this government, and we know how to run it and we do not ask for your advice.'" "Yes," interjected F

Rhode Island, "bu how to run it." "Yes; that was part of their unsuccessful egotism," responded Williams.

How They Like Us.

Of course we are aware that foreign countries do not like us, nor do they like our attitude on anything in this great war. At the same time this country has done pretty well. Through Red Cross and other organizations it has sent abroad quite a lot of contributions and has tried to show humanitarian principles to all the peoples at war. People have contributed to entertainments, balls and relief organizations in a fairly liberal manner.

This is preliminary to the statement that when the Navy league proposed a ball for raising funds for promoting its affairs the tickets sent to every foreign embassy in Washington were promptly returned. The people who have been pretty liberal in their foreign contributions who met this rebuff were far from pleased.

Only Nelson Would Say It.

"Perhaps I have wearied the senate," remarked Senator Nelson after having discussed the army bill at least longer than any other man. "Perhaps I have been a little too garrulous. They say old people are apt to fall into that rut, and I may not be immune."

No one but the Minnesota senator would have been so frank. Few of the old senators would have acknowledged that they were getting old, and not one of them, young or old, would have owned up to being garrulous.

A Young Fashion.

Pleids are shown for children as usual, and many of them are very attractive. These are often made into three piece suits which consist of a jumper scalloped at the bottom, a plaid skirt, also of the plaid, with a detachable waist of white French linen.

Beautiful Hair.

If the hair is inclined to be dry it should have a little oil rubbed on the scalp once or twice a week. Massage will loosen the scalp and increase the circulation, and the nourishment of the hair is dependent upon the blood supply.

Honest.

"There's one thing I like about church affairs anyhow." "And what is that?" "They never pretend to be selling out below cost."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Frank M. Eddy has been secured by the G. A. R. of Aitkin as the principal speaker on Memorial day, and the good people of Aitkin are to be congratulated for Mr. Eddy will give them a splendid talk on that occasion.

There is talk in democratic circles that D. W. Lawler is to be the successor of Fred Lynch as the democratic boss of Minnesota, and that he will succeed Mr. Lynch as national committeeman. If it happens it will be with the consent of Mr. Lynch, judging from recent past events.

The despised milk weed that grows on the shores of sandy lakes and in barren places is liable to take its place in the commercial world. Spinning concerns in the east are spinning as high as $100 a ton for milk weed fibre which they are forced to use in their business "on account of the war."

The city of Winnipeg wants more daylight and has gone on New York time, setting their clocks and watches ahead an hour and in consequence will get up an hour earlier and seek the repose of their couches correspondingly. It gives the workman an hour more of daylight after he has finished his daily toil.

The Crosby Crucible says that the community picnic at Bay Lake last summer under the auspices of the Crow Wing County Federation of Farmers' clubs was a "humdinger," but "we will bet that it will be far eclipsed by the one to be given at Brainerd this summer." That's going some, but Brainerd will make good.

If you are not a member of the Chamber of Commerce of this city, Mr. Citizen, don't you think it would be to your interest to join a civic body of that kind that is continually boosting for the benefit of the place in which you live and in which your interests are centered. Live cities are made possible by concerted action and only where the people join together for the common good.

One would almost think London was in the far famed "Indian country," judging from the following news item:
 London, April 23.—The liquor control board has discovered a new non-alcoholic beer, the sale of which will be pushed as far as possible in the English public house.
 "It smells like beer; it looks like beer; it tastes like beer—the only difference is in the headache," says the statement issued by the board.
 In a test case a workman drank twenty pint bottles without becoming intoxicated.
 The new drink will be placed at the disposal of parliament in the House of Commons bar."

It is time that the opening of Fifth street across the railroad track was taken up by the city council. The city has no further use for the old fire hall in its present location and it is the only obstacle in the way of making this civic improvement. With its removal and the paving of Fifth street south the way would be open for continuous travel north and south on one of the principal thoroughfares in the heart of Brainerd. It would not only be a convenience to the citizens but would enable the fire department to respond in much less time to a call to the northside residence district by giving them a direct street north from the fire station instead of having to make two turns and in some instances go out of their way in order to reach their objective point. It would seem that it is not unreasonable to ask the railroad people to acquiesce in this matter upon a proper presentation.

DECIDE TO KEEP ARMY IN MEXICO

Officials Will Redistribute the American Forces.

PLAN TO PROTECT BORDER

New Method Leaves the Pursuit of Villa at a Standstill—Troops Will Be Grouped in Posts of Such Strength as to Protect Them From Attack.

Washington, April 24.—Behind the formal announcement that President Wilson had approved a plan for redistribution of the American troops in Mexico there was a plain intimation that the Washington government had determined to maintain a military status quo beyond the border until the Mexican de facto government has demonstrated its ability to capture or crush Villa and his adherents and prevent repetitions of the Columbus, N. M., raid.

In the interim, it is understood, the American troops will be so placed as to safeguard the border towns by virtually policing the area south of the line where General Carranza has been heretofore unable to check bandit operations.

Secretary Baker announced the approval of the redistribution plan after consulting with the president over a joint report submitted by Major General Funston and Major General Scott, chief of staff, in conference on the border. The plan was proposed by General Funston and concurred in by General Scott.

The secretary announced the administration's decision as follows:
 Funston's Plans Approved.

"General Funston has recommended a redistribution of the forces in Mexico for the purpose of reorganization and pending opportunities for further cooperation with the forces of the de facto government of Mexico. The recommendation has been approved and its execution left to his discretion."

Later the secretary dictated the following:
 "The statement I have made indicates nothing whatever on the subject of when American troops will be withdrawn from Mexico. The whole subject of withdrawal of the forces is under arrangement and negotiations by the state department."

Mr. Baker declined to say whether General Funston's recommendation included his previous suggestions that the border base be shifted from Columbus, N. M., to Presidio, Tex., or some other point to the east of Columbus in order to shorten the line of communication. He stated positively, however, that no additional regiments had been ordered to the border and that no such order was in contemplation.

It was announced that General Scott had completed his mission to the border and would return to Washington in a few days.
 The new military plan leaves the pursuit of Villa at a standstill, but frees General Funston's hands to make the position of the forces in Mexico secure by grouping them in posts of such strength as to protect them from attack by irresponsible elements of the de facto government's forces.

BRITISH SOCIALISTS SPLIT

Conference at Salford Is Marked by Turbulent Scenes.

London, April 24.—The opening of the fifth annual conference of the British Socialist party at Salford was marked by turbulent scenes resulting from the passage of a resolution to exclude the press.

Thirty delegates left the conference and went to Manchester, where they issued a manifesto condemning the resolution as the climax of a determined attempt to subordinate the policy of the organization to "a pernicious anti-national pacifism at a time when we are engaged in a life and death struggle with German militarism and German atrocities."

The Salford session continued in secret conference and issued a counter statement impugning the action of what is called the "power section."

THOUSAND PERISH IN MARINE MISHAP

Shanghai, April 24.—More than 1,000 soldiers and men of the crew of the steamer Hai-Yu were lost when the steamer sank after a collision with the cruiser Hai-Yang Saturday night, south of the Chusan Islands.

The steamer, acting as a transport, was taking troops to Foochow. The collision occurred in a thick fog and only one foreign engineer, twenty soldiers and nine sailors out of six foreigners and more than 1,000 soldiers and members of the crew were saved.

The Hai-Yu was a vessel of 1,629 tons. It was built in 1889 and was owned by the China Merchants' Steam Navigation company of Shanghai.

TWO RAILWAYS ARE TIED UP

Mississippi Floods Over Seven Thousand Acres.

Winona, Minn., April 24.—Lashed for two weeks by the high waters of the Mississippi river, a mile away from the normal shore line, the roadbed of the main line of the Burlington railroad gave away and, as a result, two railroads are blocked effectively by washouts, 7,000 acres of farm and ranch land is under water and there has been heavy loss of live stock.

The Burlington right of way has served as a dike against which the floodwaters played, but they were prevented from reaching land behind it.

WHAT PAINT WILL DO.

Adds to the Appearance and Value of Houses.

Ask any real estate man what percentage of value is added to a house by a fresh coat of paint and you will be surprised at the size of the figure he will give you. Too many householders have the habit of putting off painting until a house fairly screams for it, and they perhaps figure that they are economizing. Not so.

Good paint applied at regular intervals, not too far apart, is the true economy in that it not only actually raises the value of the house by improved appearance, but through preservative ingredients prevents and arrests decay.

The man who lets his house become an eyesore in an otherwise well kept locality should be taxed for the heavy damage he is doing to that community says the Real Estate Journal.

AFTER SUNDAY BASEBALL NEXT

Minister of City Says Playing Baseball on Sunday is Worst Kind of Sabbath Desecration

In speaking with a minister this morning regarding the movement against picture shows operating on Sundays, the statement was made that many did not like this closing movement because they feared that Sunday baseball was the next to be under the ban of the church people.

Sunday baseball, said the minister, was a desecration of the Sabbath and baseball on that day should be done away with. Sunday was the Lord's day, the day of the churches, and nothing else should interfere.

BRAINERD'S OLDEST STORY TODAY

"Andy" Nelson, assistant engineer at the pump house of the city, has a cold and thereby hangs a tale.

Andy is a fisherman by nature, regardless of whether he has the fishing tackle along or not. Saturday evening he was yading home from the pump house, five inches of Mississippi now covering 600 feet of the road from the station to the hill. As Andy walked along, swinging his empty dinner bucket and merrily whistling at having finished another day's work, he stubbed his toe on a 30 pound pickerel which was scratching its back on the slag in the water-covered road. Mr. Nelson dropped his bucket and chased the pickerel. Inadvertently he stepped off the road, tripped and submerged. He came to the surface, puffing, rescued the floating dinner pail, but the pickerel had disappeared and all that Andy brought home was wet clothes and a cold which persists in sticking to him like a long lost brother.

OLDER BOYS COUNCIL

Get-Together Meeting at First Baptist Church Tuesday Evening, April 25th

For several months the Older Boys Council of Brainerd has had no big meeting. Now, before the final examinations and summer vacation, the time is ripe for a get-together of importance. The time and place arranged for are tomorrow night at half past seven at the First Baptist church.

The meeting is of such a character that no boy (fifteen to twenty years of age) can afford to miss it. No one will be bored with long speeches; short, snappy talks will be substituted and will lend interest to the meeting. Then Rev. R. E. Cody, who has had considerable experience in giving stereopticon lectures, and hence, is very free and interesting in his delivery, will give an illustrated lecture on "A Young Man's Choice." All who have heard this lecture and have seen the splendid set of slides, have pronounced this one of the best ever heard or seen.

The musical part of the program is not to be lost sight of. Besides singing by the audience, there will be special vocal and instrumental selections by boy artists of our own city. The B. F. C. quartet of the Presbyterian Sunday school, will also be present to "deliver the goods."

Last, but not least, are the refreshments. Surely this part of it is always acceptable. No admission fee will be charged, and every boy of 15 to 20 in the Sunday schools, is given a glad hand of welcome.

CAFE OBSERVATION CAR

Service to be Resumed Soon on the Minnesota & International Railway, Starts May 27

This train order has been received relative to improvement of train service on the Northern Pacific and Minnesota railways:

"Superintendent of Transportation advises that with train No. 9 from St. Paul May 27th and M. & I. train No. 32 from Bemidji, May 29th, will operate cafe observation car daily except Sunday, between St. Paul and Bemidji on trains 9, 10, 31 and 32, using cafe observation cars 1762 and 1765."

This resumes the service which is much appreciated by tourists and others visiting the lake region of Minnesota.

WESTERN UNION NEW SERVICE

Delivery of Flowers, Candies, Etc., at Distant Points May be Arranged by Telegraph

The Western Union Telegraph Company announces that its offices are now prepared to execute small commissions such as the purchase of flowers, candy, fruits, cigars, books, etc., for the accommodation of patrons at distant points. This is in effect an extension of the Western Union Money Transfer Service, and represents the latest development in the policy of the management of that company to place its nationwide organization at the disposal of its patrons.

Under the plan now in effect, anyone who desires to arrange for the delivery of flowers or gifts, or remembrances of any kind, or for the transaction of any other small commission involving the disbursement of money at distant points, no longer needs to know someone at the distant point who will fill the order or execute the commission. All that is necessary is to wire the amount to the Western Union Manager at the point of delivery, through the medium of the company's regular Money Transfer Service, and to incorporate in the transfer message requisite instructions regarding the purchase and delivery of the articles desired, or whatever other commission may be involved.

The service will be available at any of the places where the Company's Money Transfer Service is in operation, and it will be a special boon to the man who forgets his birthday or other remembrances, or puts them off until the last minute, since it will enable him to repair his oversight, or neglect, at the eleventh hour.

Florists, confectioners, book sellers and tobacconists, naturally will reap large benefits from this service, and it should help to boom their business. However, this supplementary service is not confined to a few lines. Among the uses suggested are the delivery of candy, cigars, books, etc., as birthday and other remembrances, the delivery of flowers on birthdays, wedding anniversaries and in cases of illness or death, the delivery of baskets of fruits to friends and especially those departing on ocean trips, the delivery of theatre tickets, etc., all with the card of the sender enclosed,—but Manager H. What corsets do you wear? Are they quite satisfactory? Are you getting just the size and style you want, with real flexibility and efficient control? Have you ever worn Royal Worcester corsets.

We ask you all these things because, previous to our discovery of Royal Worcester corsets, we were so often perplexed to find corsets that fully came up to our ideas of style, comfort and health. Royal Worcester has indeed proved a blessing.

Yes, Royal Worcester corsets sell for $1, $1.50, $2 and $2.50, and one soon finds out that their fine fitting qualities and long wear are truly an economy.

Partial View of Immense "Bull" Durham Factories at Durham, N. C.

The Purity of "Bull" Durham Is Proven Absolutely by Government Statistics!

Herewith we print a facsimile of a letter from Hon. W. H. Osborn, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, written in the routine of his official duty in answer to a letter from the manufacturer.

The Government officials find in the "Bull" Durham factory nothing but the bright, golden leaves of Carolina and Virginia tobaccos—the tobaccos that have made American cigarettes the most popular smokes in the world.

In Durham—and indeed, throughout practically all of North Carolina and the adjoining counties of Virginia—nearly every man is interested in tobacco, the great staple crop of the community. In the towns where the tobacco warehouses are located; on the farms, in the banks, in the stores—everywhere—these men who grow the tobacco, who take it to market, who buy it and sell it, and are made prosperous by the business of handling the money received from the crop—everywhere, these men know that the sweetest, mellowest, choicest leaf is bought for

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

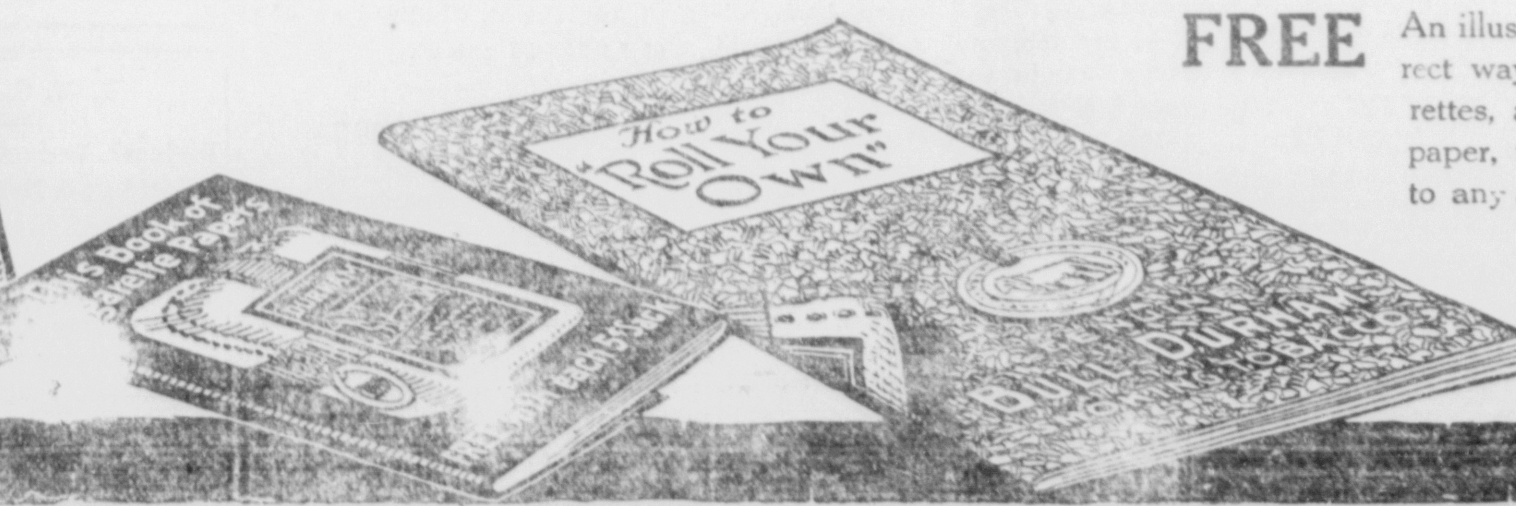

And they know that nothing else ever enters the "Bull" Durham factory.

These men who live with tobacco, know that for three generations the same farms in the same counties have been producing their best for "Bull" Durham. They know that the quality of "Bull" Durham has made the city of Durham famous—and the honor of "Bull" Durham is a source of pride, not only to the manufacturers, but to the entire community.

Test "Bull" Durham Purity For Yourself! You can easily prove to your entire satisfaction the absolute purity of this famous old tobacco.

Simply take a bag of "Bull" Durham and empty the tobacco on a piece of white paper. Then separate the grains with your finger and examine them closely. You will find only tiny flakes of pure tobacco—nothing else looks like the golden Carolina-Virginia leaf used in "Bull" Durham. Your eye would instantly "spot" anything of a different nature. Make the test today— learn to "roll your own" with "Bull" Durham—and you'll find the greatest smoke-enjoyment of your life.

An illustrated Booklet, showing correct way to "Roll Your Own" Cigarettes, and a package of cigarette paper, will both be mailed, free, to any address in U. S. on request. Address "Bull" Durham, Durham, N. C.
